

WHAT EMPLOYERS NEED TO KNOW FOR 2017: SRC'S CALIFORNIA EMPLOYMENT LAW BREAKFAST BRIEFING

Sacks, Ricketts & Case LLP (SRC) will present its third annual California Employment Law Breakfast Briefing on December 6th and 8th. SRC will provide attendees with timely information and tools to help comply with the new California and federal employment laws and traverse the constantly changing legal landscape for California employers.

SRC attorneys Luanne Sacks, Hope Anne Case, Merrili Escue and Todd Simonson are the featured speakers. Luanne will provide her insight and expertise on the evolving case law governing the use and enforcement of arbitration agreements. Hope, Merrili and Todd, who each have extensive experience counseling employers on California employment compliance, will present information on new legislation and noteworthy court decisions. We will also provide valuable practical guidance for attendees to assist their companies in complying with the expanding obligations of California employers and avoiding employment issues and disputes.

We will be seeking California MCLE credit for attorneys attending this seminar.

For more information regarding the seminar, please email jtalavera-rauh@srclaw.com.

For further information regarding the briefing or assistance with employment practices compliance generally, please contact one of the SRC employment attorneys below:

Hope Case
(650) 494-4098
hcase@srclaw.com

Merrili Escue
(858) 381-5458
mescue@srclaw.com

Todd Simonson
(415) 504-3163
tsimonson@srclaw.com

SMART. RESOURCEFUL. COMMITTED.

ATTORNEY ADVERTISING

The contents of this newsletter are intended for general informational purposes only and should not be construed as legal advice or a legal opinion. You are advised to consult an attorney about any specific legal question.